Remembrance Day Message from Brother Graeme Johnston

Remembrance Day is an important day to show respect and appreciation to many men and women. We often take for granted our Canadian values and institutions, our freedom to participate in cultural and political events, and our right to live under a government of our choice.

By remembering the service and sacrifice of many Canadians who have fought, are currently serving, and of those who have had their lives touched by war, we recognize the tradition of freedom these men and women fought to preserve.

On November 11th on the 11th hour we honour them and dedicate to their memory the pursuit of peace at home and around the world.

"We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, loved and were loved, and now we lie in Flanders Fields"

Excerpt from John McCrae's In Flanders Fields
